

University of Exeter – Liberal Arts

Please find below the core reading lists for Liberal Arts.

Please note, we are not recommending you purchase these books; however, these are a good indication of the books and topics that you will be coming across in your first term. This list has been compiled directly from our module reading lists for your first term – this is a good place to start if you are interested in getting on with some of the reading before starting with us in September. Aside from the books listed below, you may wish to investigate the reading lists of your chosen Major. Our general advice is simply to read widely and with a critical approach, and to enjoy your summer!

Laff, N. S., (ed), Identity, Learning, and the Liberal Arts (Jossey-Bass, 2005)

Joe Moran, Interdisciplinarity (London: Routledge, 2010)

M. Nishimura & T. Sasao, T., Doing Liberal Arts Education: The Global Case Studies (Singapore: Springer, 2019).

Allen F. Repko et al, Introduction to Interdisciplinary Studies (Thousand Oaks, CA.: SAGE, 2014)

A. F. Repko & R. Szostak, Interdisciplinary Research: Process and Theory (Los Angeles: Sage Publications, 2017).

Mark Roche, Why Choose Liberal Arts? (Notre Dame: Notre Dame University, 2010)

Fareed Zakaria, In Defense of a Liberal Education (New York: W. W. Norton, 2015)
